

Dehwelans – The Festival of Cornwall

Dehwelans which means the homecoming in Cornish, is a weeklong celebration based in Looe from 1st – 7th September of all things Cornish, with performances, walks, talks, lectures, gigs, dancing, music, local history and heritage tours throughout South East Cornwall.

Looe will welcome visitors from the worldwide Cornish community keen to immerse themselves in Cornish culture and heritage and a chance to retrace their family ancestry.

There will be events all around the town from a packed programme including; award winning Cornish films sponsored by Barclay House Hotel, to a local produce 'grazing on the riverside'. Enjoy a leisurely drink with Cornish Orchards, Purely Cornish Deli and Skinners Brewery in the Millpool Riverside Bar.

Evening performances in the Millpool marquee include; the musical drama Cornish Lads, a Noze loan with Cornish band Dalla, Sheila's School of Dancing's Tressa – The Secret Smuggler, a gala review and Kernow Rocks, indy band gig. To top it all there will be a Sunday fun day on East Looe seafront with beach treasure hunt, Cornish wrestling, dancing and a colourful processional through the town. Secure your tickets in good time on-line at www.dehwelanskernow.com or in person at the Looe Information Centre box Office, The Guildhall, East Looe

For more information contact the co-ordinator Edwina Hannaford 01503 264160 dehwelanslooe@btconnect.com